

RACINE COUNTY

Something for everyone, minutes to everything

Whether you choose to live, work or play here — Racine County truly has it all!

Located on the shores of Lake Michigan and conveniently positioned between Chicago and Milwaukee, Racine County boasts lakefront beaches and gentle rolling hills, vibrant urban areas and peaceful rural retreats. World-renowned businesses like SC Johnson, Twin Disc, Runzheimer, and InSinkErator and first-class amenities like Reefpoint Marina, Racine Zoo, and Racine Art Museum, make it clear why nearly 200,000 diverse and welcoming residents call one of Racine County's 17 unique communities home.

Did You Know?

Racine County was founded in 1836 as a territorial county and is named for the Root River, which flows through Racine County and enters Lake Michigan in the City of Racine. Racine is French for "root."

Community Snapshot

Location

Racine County is located on the western shore of Lake Michigan in southeastern Wisconsin and is approximately 65 miles north of Chicago and 25 miles south of Milwaukee.

Climate

Racine County enjoys a climate with four seasons. Spring and fall are pleasant and beautiful, while summer and winter each offer plenty of opportunities for recreation.

A Diverse Community

Racine County is the second most diverse county in Wisconsin!*

196,132

Population

2 Cities 6 Towns 9 Villages

Schools

Whether your student is interested in public or private education, Racine County has an abundance of educational opportunities for students from Pre-K to College.

Housing

Interested in an urban apartment or a condo on the water? Looking for sprawling farmland or a rural retreat? You can find exactly what you're looking for in Racine County.

Quality of Life

Racine County has something for everyone. Whether you're an outdoor enthusiast or a culture buff, a shopper or lover of architecture, Racine County is the place for you.

Employment

Racine County has more than 4,000 businesses and more than 350 manufacturing companies in operation. These companies, and their thousands of employees, are woven into the fabric of our community.

Learn More!

racinecountyedc.org/content/data-center
racinecounty.com

*Source: niche.com

Racine County Economic Development Corporation
2320 Renaissance Boulevard, Sturtevant, WI 53177 | 262-898-7400 | rcedc@rcedc.org | www.rcedc.org